

Patrol Corporal

LOCATION:

Wrightsville Beach, NC

SALARY:

Grade 18; TOWB Pay Plan Range ($39,549 - $61,460)

DUTIES:

The Wrightsville Beach Police Department is currently accepting letters of interest for the position of Police Corporal. This position serves as an assistant supervisor to one of our four the Patrol Sergeants. The Patrol Corporal is responsible for various administrative and other collaborative duties in running a patrol squad, in addition to those normal duties associated with being a police officer in the Wrightsville Beach Police Department. The Corporal is also responsible for maintaining a strong presence in the area of community and problem oriented policing and mentoring less experienced officers on the patrol squad.

The Town of Wrightsville Beach was founded in 1899 and is located in New Hanover County, North Carolina, and encompasses one of the finest family oriented beach communities in the state of North Carolina. Our officers recognize and demonstrate a community policing philosophy. The Wrightsville Beach Police Department is currently allocated for 25 full time police officers, five sworn reserve officer positions and 2 civilian employees who serve a resort community of approximately 2500 permanent residents, that swells to as much as 67,000 residents, vacationers and guests during the peak summer season. The Department provides 24-hour police patrol and responds to calls for police service, as well as a criminal investigations and community policing programs.

The Wrightsville Beach Police Department is also committed to being a professional law enforcement agency. This is demonstrated in the agencies voluntary participation in the accreditation process through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). The Wrightsville Beach Police Department received its full accreditation in July of 2015 and was recently reaccredited in July of 2018.

REQUIREMENTS:

This is a sworn officer position, as such candidates will have to meet all the necessary requirements of a police officer in the State of North Carolina. The candidate must also have at least six (6) years of progressively responsible experience in a law enforcement agency, preferably within the State of North Carolina.

A combination of formal education and experience that provides the necessary knowledge, skills and abilities may be considered on a case to case basis.

Must either possess NC Law Enforcement Certification or be eligible for immediate certification with NC Criminal Justice Education and Standards Commission, if applying from out of state. Must also possess a valid North Carolina driver's license at the time of appointment.
